

6

Two cuts The figure above is shaped from small equilateral triangles. Connect four named points making two cuts to divide the figure into three parts. These parts should form a single (big) equilateral triangle. The parts may be freely translated and rotated.

Answer format Describe four points that make two cuts. Use notation as in the example below. The points should be sorted by letters first, then by numbers.

Exemplary answer C9E5:F6I8